EDITORIAL COMMENT.

ASPECT OF RACE RIOTS IN THE NORTH.

The race riots at Springfield, Illinois, are the worst that have occurred in the north. Their recurrence in the south are frequent, and the cause is generally the same as that which aroused the people at the Illinois capital; but the effect is never as far-reaching. In the southern states a mob will burn a negro at the stake for the unthinkable crime, and the occurrence will blow over almost immediately, or until another provocation occurs; but in the north the fiercest passions are aroused, and the whole country is stirred.

For a long time it was the practice of the north to animadvert upon the "barbarity" manifested by the southern people in these outbursts. We of the north assumed a more acute respect for authority and wondered why they did not let the law take its course instead of resorting to summary and illegal methods.

That was before we had such troubles of our own. We now see that we are less moderate than those whom we essayed to criticize. The great racial problem of the south is not a mere matter of prejudice. It is inherent and more serious than could be supposed by those not familiar with it through actual experience. In the north the troubles growing out of it, though not so often manifest, appear to be deeper and the future is more uncertain than in that section where the question recurs oftener and is all pervading.

It is difficult, in states such as ours, to understand such an outburst as that at Springfield. Colored people of California must be of an altogether different class from those in the eastern state. There has never been a clash approaching the nature of that which has so recently come in for national attention, and the races live here in complete amity.

A deep-seated antipathy must have already existed in Illinois toward the colored people to have led to such terrible extremes on the occasion of a single offense. This racial antipathy which has now been so immensely strengthened by this occurrence may put a new phase upon the whole problem, which is not unlikely to become a political issue in the north, as it has, ever since the civil war, been the chief one in the south. —Oakland Tribune.

REFUSE TO BELIEVE LEWIS IS DEAD

NEVADA CITY, Aug. 21.—Friends and acquaintances of Walter N. Lewis, who formerly owned the Plaza planing mill in Nevada City, believe that he did not commit suicide, as suspected, but that he has gone somewhere to begin life over again.

Some time ago an announcement appeared to the effect that Lewis had disappeared from his home in San Francisco, to which city he went to reside after selling out his business in Nevada City. For days nothing was heard of him after he dropped out of sight, and from the conversations he had with members of his family and intimate friends it was feared that he had taken his life. Lewis had met with reverses in San Francisco besides sustaining a severe injury through falling from a scaffold, and it was thought this had affected his mind and made him melancholy.

A letter recently received in Nevada City puts a different aspect on the movements of Lewis. This letter states that since leaving Lewis has written to his family to say that he had gone out into the world for the purpose of getting a new start; that he had no intention of committing suicide.

Take the children today to the Butler matinee. Moving pictures are above the ordinary.

REQUISITION FOR GOVERNOR TAYLOR

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 21.—Governor Wilson in response to a number of questions in a statement tonight stated he would issue requisitions for the return of former Governor Taylor and former Secretary of State Finley from Indiana to this state to stand trial for complicity in the murder of William Goebel.

The governor, however, said that he would insist upon their being released on bail, but Commonwealth Attorney Robert Franklin says he will resist any motion that Taylor and Finley may make to secure their release on bail, as he says the constitution provides that any persons indicted for capital punishment can not be released.

WOULD-BE LYNCHERS FINED.
NORFOLK, Aug. 21.—Ten of the fourteen men charged with participating in the attack made upon the county jail last week by a mob that sought to lynch the negroes, Bryson and Brack King, charged with criminal assault on aged Mrs. Powell, were today fined $100 and costs with sixty days in jail. Appeals were granted. The others were discharged.

EAGLES POSTPONE MILLERS EXERCISES

NON ARRIVAL OF CHARTER
CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF INSTALLATION.

The installation and initiation of a new aerie of Eagles at Millers which was to have taken place Sunday has been postponed on account of the non arrival of the charter. Great preparations had been made by the local aerie and the event would have been a red letter day in the chronicles of the organization. In all probability the new area will be installed next Sunday. The drum corps will go to the mill city with the Eagles ball team which cross bats tomorrow with the Millers team and in all likelihood a large delegation of Eagles will accompany them.

BUD CARBERRY SPRINGS SENSATION

TESTIFIES THAT SNYDER REVEALED TO DETECTIVE DOMESTIC TROUBLES.

At the preliminary hearing of Peter Snyder at Bishop, California, suspected with a Greek companion to have murdered his wife, Fannie Snyder, near South lake on August 2, the prosecution sprang a great surprise in the testimony of Bud Carberry, formerly of Tonopah, now of Millers, who was in partnership with Snyder last spring, and who revealed by his testimony today remarkable circumstances which underlie the mystery of the murder of Mrs. Snyder.

Carberry testified that Snyder frequently had told him of his domestic troubles and that he was violently in love with Miss Grace Craven, his step-daughter, who, by the way, arrived here last Sunday in company with Sheriff Ogg of Kansas.

Snyder has been very attentive to Miss Craven since her sudden appearance here, changing his hotel to the one occupied by her, and persisting in his attentions until ordered out.

His attorneys are making a heroic effort to have the case against him dismissed. The end of the hearing appears not yet in sight although the case has continued now for a week of the hotel by Sheriff Navior.
